MRS. B. FRANK MEBANE (Lily Morehead)
Spray, North Carolina

(The above picture of Mrs. Mebane was taken in her costume worn when she was presented at the Court of St. James.)

A college is best represented by the men and women whom it prepares for life work, and Peace is truly represented in Mrs. Mebane.

Alumnae and trustee of Peace, Mrs. Mebane is vitally interested in education, maintaining scholarships in several outstanding colleges of the state and contributing to the school libraries of her county. One of the outstanding legislators in the state, she understands the needs of her fellow citizens and strives to serve them. Scattered all over the state are witnesses of her philanthrophy and interest in human welfare.

Any one who has been associated with Mrs. Mebane knows the charming personality which makes her outstanding in social life.

To Mrs. Mebane—educator, legislator, social leader, and philanthropist—the Senior class dedicates this, the 1932 volume of THE LOTUS.

Miss Daisy Frances Smith

Ideally fitted by Nature, Miss Smith is all that a teacher should be. Her sincere interest in our personal problems, her patient and ceaseless guidance in the classroom and her enthusiastic participation in our school life, make her the leader that she is. Her loyalty to class and to school sets an ever-present example; her coöperation is unfailing, individually and collectively, in all the widening phases of activity.

The knowledge of the past which is hers and her application of it to the present instills in us all, wisdom for the future. She feels that her mission is not only the exposition of facts, bu the endeavor to give to us that aspect of the deeper and finer things acquired from her experience, which may be useful to us according to the measure of our appreciation. So in her is embodied the past, which was good; the present, which holds our labors for the betterment of the past; and the vision of the goal itself with its endless possibilities.

According to the measure of our appreciation shall we deserve this, our teacher, leader, and friend.

Senior Poem

Up the long mountain-path of years we passed,
Our eyes intent on goal in kind. We mount
The steeps, we pressed with urgent feet at last,
And, landmark reached, we pause to take account.
The trailing mists that hide the path of time,
The veil that intercepts the past from view,
Our parting rends in twain, the hazardous climb
In dream-like retrospect our eyes renew.

No rest, or all thy gain is loss—press on!
Turn to the shrouded future—what's achieved
Is opiate lest spurned. Escape the bond
That cramps the soul, decaying unperceived.
Then, pilgrims, on, your utmost spirit spend;
A peak beyond each peak there lies until the end.

CAROLINE WARD.

IRMA LOUISE BONANDER

Π Θ Μ

Wilmington, North Carolina

Phi Chi Psi; P. S. C. A. Cabinet ('32); Advertising staff ('31, '32).

In Irma we find a rare combination of beauty, poise, and intellect. Her lovely voice and exceptional talent as a violinist, in addition to her enthusiastic and whole hearted nature have made her one of the most popular girls in school.

ELIZABETH NORWOOD BOYD

Π Θ Μ

Warrenton, North Carolina

Secretary Student Body ('32); Secretary P. S. C. A. ('32); French Club ('32); Privileged Honor Roll ('32); Statistics ('32).

The essences of charm, good taste, and idealism meet here, expressed in the pleasing beauty of her countenance. Her friendliness and good nature can always be relied upon; her equal in strength and sweetness of character is seldom met.

ELIZABETH W. BUTLER

Σ Φ Κ

Fayetteville, North Carolina

F. M. C. ('32).

"Lib" is a girl whose determination and cheerfulness have won the admiration and respect of students and faculty alike. She is a real friend, sympathizing or rejoicing as occasion demands. By this same trait she has gained many friends at Peace.

HILDA L. CLONTZ

Σ Φ K

Wilmington, North Carolina

Treasurer P. S. C. A. ('32); Privileged Honor Roll ('32); French Club ('32).

A girl like Hilda with so many admirable traits is hard to describe. You may depend on her to do well anything she undertakes. Her pleasing ways will always remain in the memories of her friends.

ROSALIND ELIZABETH CRIST

Σ Φ K

Raleigh, North Carolina

Tall, slender, black hair, blue eyes—these suggest a typical old-fashioned girl. Rosalind is truly that. She is modest, yet charming; quiet, yet entertaining. Her willingness to work, her unselfishness, and her cheerful personality have endeared her to the heart of each and every Senior.

JEAN CORNELIA CROMARTIE

Σ Φ K

Garland, North Carolina

Beta Pi Delta ('31, '32); Zeta Tau Zeta ('31); Daughters of Peace Club; French Club ('32); Glee Club ('32); P. S. C. A. ('31, '32); Basketball Team ('31, '32); Hockey Team ('31).

To be as lovable and friendly as Jean is to be popular. Adding to that her looks and her vivacity, it is easy to see why we think so much of her. She has surely been successful in making her place in every Peace girl's heart.

FRANCES VIRGILINE DORSEY

Π Θ Μ

Canton, North Carolina

French Club ('32); Basketball Team ('31, '32); Zeta Tau Zeta ('31, '32); P. S. C. A.; E O E Club.

Here is a cheerful girl, with a smile and a good word for everyone. She seems to sparkle with love of life and brim with fun and good humor. There's a serious side to Pat's nature too, for her sincerity is well known to all her friends.

VIRGINIA EARLE

Σ Φ Κ

Storall, North Carolina

Hockey Team ('31); Latin Club ('31); French Club ('32).

Virginia is a quiet, faithful Senior who is always a patient and willing worker. Her good nature and humor, however, show that she firmly believes in having her share of the good times in life. She has won our real affection.

KATHERINE CLARK GILES

Σ Φ Κ

Marion, North Carolina

The LOTUS Staff ('31, '32); Glee Club ('32); French Club ('32); Peace Pipers; Basketball Team; Hockey Team.

Katherine is a real friend. She may be quiet but she is the kind of girl in whom a great deal of confidence may be placed. Her sincerity and unaffectedness have brought her numerous staunch friends during her two years at Peace.

CATHERINE EUGENIA HARRINGTON

Π Θ Μ

Raleigh, North Carolina

Current Events Club ('32).

Poise, dependability, dignity, and an unusual talent for drawing distinguish Catherine. On first acquaintance she is slightly aloof and reserved, but later we find her a loyal and sincere friend. With such dignity and talent great things may be expected of this loyal daughter of Peace.

JANIE JOLLY

Π Θ Μ

Raleigh, North Carolina

It doesn't seem possible that most of us have known Janie only a year. Her charming personality, her persuasive smile and ready greeting have endeared her to every one. Life will surely be beautiful for her because she is made for sunshine and laughter.

ELISABETH LEGRAND

Π Θ Μ

Shelby, North Carolina

P. S. C. A. Cabinet ('31); Junior Athletic Representative ('31); Basketball ('31, '32); Hockey ('31); Zeta Tau Zeta ('31); F. M. C. ('32); Statistics ('31, '32).

"Peg" is the type of girl who can hold any position. She is the biggest "cut up" in school, but underlying this is a character as true and firm as the rock of Gibraltar. She is talented, versatile and reliable, and as a friend she is always loyal.

ELIZABETH HARRIET LINK

Σ Φ K

Raleigh, North Carolina

Voices of Peace ('31); Latin Club ('30, '31, '32); Glee Club ('32).

Three years have slipped away since Harriet first came to Peace. Yet there are some things about her that will never slip from our minds and hearts—her effective work as a pianist, her place in the classroom, but most of all her genuine, sincere self.

NANCY ALICE LINK

Σ Φ K

Raleigh, North Carolina

Latin Club ('30, '31); Vice President Prep. 4's ('30); Advertiser's Club ('31); Business Manager Voices of Peace ('31); Business Manager LOTUS ('32); Secretary of Junior Class ('31); Vice President Class ('32); Class Historian ('32); Glee Club ('32).

Attractive, brilliant, capable, dependable, and right on down the alphabet we can say all the complimentary adjectives about Nancy. Her wide and varied interests make her the unusual person she is. There's no use trying to do Nancy justice; just take our word for it. She's hard to beat!

IRENE LITTLE

Π Θ Μ

Raleigh, North Carolina

President of Day Students ('32).

She is a brilliant student, but beneath this a charming, vivid, and attractive personality. Irene has remarkable executive ability which has not been wasted during her stay at Peace, for she has been a leader of student activities. Because of her ambition and unflinching desire for the best, she is sure to make her mark in the world.

CORNELIA LOVE

Π Θ Μ

Raleigh, North Carolina

Voices of Peace Staff ('31); Editor ('32). The LOTUS Staff ('32); Glee Club ('32).

Have you ever known a person who seemed to be endowed with all the admirable qualities? Cornelia is that sort of a person—beauty, intelligence, spirituality, humor, dependability, tolerance, character—all charmingly blended, serve to make her piquant personality one of the most outstanding of the class of '32.

MARY HARVEY LOVE

Π Θ Μ

Raleigh, North Carolina

The LOTUS Staff ('31); Editor-in-Chief LOTUS ('32); Secretary Pi Theta Mu ('32); French Club ('32); Secretary-Treasurer French Club ('32); Statistics ('32).

All the nice things that could be said would not do justice to our Editor-in-Chief. Her painstaking and efficient work on the Senior Book, her outstanding class work, and her own personality are a few of the reasons that explain the high place she holds at Peace.

GERTRUDE E. MANN

Π Θ Μ

Raleigh, North Carolina

Gertrude is a merry person, a certain frank, rollicking humor flashing continually from her blue eyes. As a true and dependable friend, and as a steady worker, her place in the world is assured. The class of '32 wishes her all success.

VIRGINIA DARE MANN

Π Θ Μ

Raleigh, North Carolina

French Club ('32).

Enter Virginia, exit gloom. She knows how to make the most of life and sets us the example.

ADA VERNON MORROW

Π Θ Μ

Mooresville, North Carolina

Y. W. C. A. Cabinet ('31); Athletic Board ('31); Marshal ('31); President Athletic Association ('32); Statistics ('32); Student Council ('32)

Ada is one of the most unselfish, most lovable girls Peace has known. She looks like a flower, and her character is just as pure and fine as her golden hair. Ada is "non pareille." To those of us who still remember our fairy tales, she is the perennial princess.

ANNA LOUISE NEWLAND

Π Θ Μ

Kwangju, Korea

President Junior Class ('31); Latin Club ('31); Student Council ('31); Voices of Peace Staff ('31); Basketball Team ('31, '32); Hockey Team ('31, '32); Privileged Honor Roll ('31, '32); Y. W. C. A. Cabinet ('31, '32); President Student Body ('32); The Lotus Staff ('32); Glee Club ('32); President French Club ('32).

Dignity, style, dependability—we find all that and more in our student body president. Did you know that she spends hours illuminating stationery, days reading philosophy, and all her life working for others?

MARGARET MCQUEEN PALMER

Σ Φ K

Gulf, North Carolina

Hockey ('31).

Margaret's quiet charm and dignity is most certainly belied in that mischievous dimple. Did you ever see her smile? All that is a round-about way of saying Margaret is one of the very nicest girls at Peace.

MARY LEIGH PITTMAN

Π Θ M

Whitakers, North Carolina

Her outstanding feature is her shy smile, and her foremost characteristic, the calm, reserved way in which she goes about her own business.

MILDRED PITTMAN

Π Θ M

Raleigh, North Carolina

French Club ('32).

Mildred is one of the dearest girls at Peace. Lavish with her friendship and love, she is sincere and quick to do anything for her friends. She is capable and conscientious in her work. There is no one who has a larger place in our hearts.

ALICE SEARIGHT

Π Θ Μ

Washington, North Carolina

President P. S. C. A. ('32); Class Poet ('31); Statistics ('32); Privileged Honor Roll ('31, '32); Student Council ('32); Vice President French Club ('32); The Lotus Staff ('31, '32).

A quaint old-fashioned flower garden enclosed by a low wall of reserve, whose walks are prim and straight and whose benches look almost practical; whose beds are always neatly weeded and full of bright and beautiful flowers that nod in charming courtesy to every breath of wind.

MARY ELIZABETH SINGLETARY

Π Θ Μ

Clarkton, North Carolina

To those who know "Mary Lib" best, she is above all a friend. She seems to have taken as her motto, "The only way to have a friend is to be one." Her readiness to help where she can is recognized by all who have come in contact with her.

JULIA ELIZABETH SMITH

Π Θ Μ

Raleigh, North Carolina

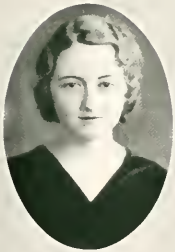
Julia is one of the sweetest girls at Peace. A soft voice and gentle manners have made a way into our hearts for their owner. Faculty and students alike admire both her genuine worth and her attractive personality.

ELIZA ARMISTEAD STEPHENSON

Π Θ Μ

Raleigh, North Carolina

Every one values real friendship and a girl may consider herself especially blessed to have Eliza's. Her sincerity and honesty appeal to all of us and her ready sympathy has endeared her to the class of '32.



BEULAH TURNER

Π Θ Μ

Goldsboro, North Carolina

Beulah is a mixture of pleasant characteristics. Capable and domestic, she sees the sunny side of life, and enjoys a good time. She is friendly and full of life, but always dependable. All who know her count her as a friend. Peace will certainly be losing a valuable member when Beulah leaves.

MARY RUTH TURNER

Σ Φ Κ

Pink Hill, North Carolina

Secretary Peace Pipers ('30); Vice President Peace Pipers ('31); Hockey Team ('30, '31); Basketball ('30); Glee Club ('32).

Ruth's quiet unassuming ways and unselfish nature make her loved by all who know her. She is sincere, even-tempered, and versatile—not the least of her talents being her ability to sing. Here's wishing her all the luck in the world!

MARY BORDEN WALLACE

Σ Φ K

Wilmington, North Carolina

Hockey ('31); P. S. C. A. Cabinet ('32). Glee Club; Treasurer Sigma Phi Kappa Literary Society; Statistics ('32).

Happy go lucky—not a care in the world! With her personality, good humor and wit, she's an outstanding part of our lives. We will miss her laugbter and fun making next year.

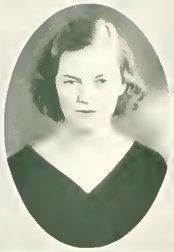
Σ Φ K

Warrenton, North Carolina

President Senior Class ('32); Assistant Treasurer P. S. C. A. ('31, '32); Voices of Peace ('31); LOTUS Staff ('32); French Club ('32); Privileged Honor Roll ('32).

A mixture of talent and playfulness—brains and mischievousness—Caroline is always at hand where there is any gaiety, and also when the "above ninety" grades are given out. She is a poet too, setting bits of philosophy in beautiful verse. Her impishness and sparkling wit set off ner more serious nature as polish does a rough gem.



ZELIAH WASHBURN

Σ Φ K

Kingston, Jamaica, B. W. I.

Vice President Junior Class ('31); Hockey ('31); Student Council ('32); President Sigma Phi Kappa Literary Society ('32); French Club ('32); F. M. C. ('32).

See that mischievous gleam of humor that lurks beneath that piquantly cocked eyebrow! This is a carefree maiden as full of sudden whimsies as a prism is of lights. She has an effervescent spirit, happily incapable of taking anything seriously.

KATE RUSSELL WEBB

Σ Φ K

Oxford, North Carolina

Hockey ('32); F. M. C. ('32).

Kate has the astonishing ability to tell us exactly what she thinks of us; yet we like her just the same. It takes a rare personality to accomplish that! Friendliness and willingness to serve are qualities that endear her to us.

RENNIE WILLIAMS

Σ Φ K

Elizabeth City, North Carolina

Chief Marshal ('31); Beta Pi Delta ('31, '32); Glee Club ('32); Secretary Sigma Phi Kappa ('32).

There is none so fair as our Rennie, a girl who possesses a most pleasing personality and outstanding talents. She will always be remembered by her Peace friends for her constant cheerfulness and good humor.

MILDRED PROVO WOMBLE

Π Θ M

Raleigh, North Carolina

Glee Club ('32); Statistics ('31, '32).

Mildred is the beautiful princess who lived in our fairy stories. With her silver hair, blue eyes, and languid grace, she perfectly typifies our ideal of beauty. Friendly wit and quiet understanding of our moods makes us value her friendship highly. Never will we forget "Heartaches" or "Harvest Moon" sung as only Mildred can sing them.

MARTHA EVERETT ADAMS

Π Θ Μ

Lumberton, North Carolina

P. S. C. A. Cabinet ('32); Granddaughters Club ('31).

Red-headed, dependable, gay, and loving Martha is the one you go to when you're hunting a cure for the blues. Both the girls and the teachers like her—her friends are innumerable.

CHARLOTTE MARGUERITE BLANKENSHIP

Σ Φ Κ

Raleigh, North Carolina

Margie makes an ideal friend. She is lovable and understanding, and her warm smile has won her many friends at Peace. The spark of genius that burns in her blue eyes causes us to predict great things for her.

GLADYS MELVILLE CAMPBELL

Σ Φ Κ

Raleigh, North Carolina

Hoot mon! I ken ye ain one gr-r-rand lassie, Gladys Campbell! Ye're eyes are as blue as Scotland's skies and as deep and true as her stalwart heart. Gladys' worth and talents are hidden beneath a shy, retiring nature, but those who know her realize her true character.

VIRGINIA MAE COX

Π Θ Μ

Raleigh, North Carolina

Virginia has a very unusual combination of talents. One moment you are rapt with admiration for her musical genius and the next you may be speechless with mirth at her latest outburst of wit. Whether as musician, wit, or friend, Virginia is truly successful.

CLARA HUMPHREY FOSCUE

Σ Φ Κ

New Bern, North Carolina

P. S. C. A. ('31, '32); Typist for the LOTUS ('32).

She faces the world with calm and level gaze. One feels that here the adage, "Still waters run deep," is exemplified. Armed with brains and determination, fortified by a happy disposition, we feel that she is one of those who will "arrive."

ELIZABETH LOUISE GEROW

Σ Φ Κ

Raleigh, North Carolina

Beauty and wisdom are indeed a rare combination, but "Lib" has both. She is cheery and attractive. Her sparkling eyes as she greets you make you feel that here indeed is a friend worth having. In leaving Peace she leaves a void.

MACY RUTH HARRIS

Σ Φ K

Raleigh, North Carolina

An elusive, elfin smile, a pair of provocative brown eyes, and an adorably wilful little curl over her left ear—that is one's first impression of Macy. Moreover she is as likeable as she is beautiful, so it is no wonder that she has many friends.

LOUISE ANNETTE GOODBRED

Σ Φ K

Raleigh, North Carolina

The LOTUS Staff ('32).

Annette carries with her the atmosphere of lavender and old lace. One is startled to find beneath this the marked traits of an unusual capacity for concentration and a vivid imagination. Such characteristics, together with a remarkably bright disposition, are sure to lead to a very prosperous and successful life.

ELIZABETH HOOD

Σ Φ K

Goldsboro, North Carolina

Marshal ('31); Vice President Sigma Phi Kappa ('32); Advertising Club ('32); Monogram Club ('31); Basketball ('31, '32); Hockey ('31); Zeta Tau Zeta ('31).

This is a vivacious, dashing young lady hard to put one's finger on. Her restless, many-sided personality evades expression. Good-fellowship, independence, enthusiasm, and a touch of sophistication are hers.

LUCILLE MALLARD

Π Θ Μ

Burgaw, North Carolina

Basketball Team ('31, '32); Hockey Team ('31, '32); Monogram Club ('31); Baseball Team ('31, '32).

"That friendship money cannot buy"—when you have Lucille for a friend you have one that cannot be bought. She has a charming personality, and is sincere and conscientious. In our hearts she holds a place that cannot be filled by any other.

MARGARET MCQUISTON

Σ Φ Κ

Clinton, South Carolina

Basketball ('31, '32); Hockey ('31); Monogram Club ('31).

Scattering happiness and seeds of joy is Margaret's own undertaking. She combines wit and good nature with a great degree of capability. Her friendship is a valuable treasure.

WILLIE LOVE MORGAN

Π Θ Μ

Edenton, North Carolina

P. S. C. A.; Annual Typist ('32).

Although a new girl this year, Willie Love has won her way into our hearts by her soft voice and gentle ways. We can only regret that we have her but one year, for "to know her is to love her."

ELISE BAGLEY PARTIN

Π Θ Μ

Raleigh, North Carolina

For a jolly good friend—always ready for fun—Elise can't be beat. A sunny smile and a droll humor coupled with a remarkable business ability is certain to carry her far in this world.

EDITH THERESA PATRICK

Σ Φ Κ

Clinton, South Carolina

Secretary-Treasurer Junior Commercials ('31); Basketball ('31, '32); Hockey ('31); Monogram Club ('31).

Edith holds a unique place in the Peace girls' heart. For two years she has kept up with our joys and sorrows through the morning mail. Her tendency not to hear the rising gong is far over-balanced by her genuine friendliness and charming personality.

HENRIETTA POWELL

Σ Φ Κ

Raleigh, North Carolina

A sweet disposition, a willing worker, not afraid to do more than is required. That is Henrietta! She has proved to be an apt student in the business department and we hope that her life in later years may be a fulfillment of her promising record at Peace.

VIRGINIA GREENE SCARBOROUGH

Σ Φ K

Mount Gilead, North Carolina

Beneath her quiet, demure exterior, Virginia has a fund of knowledge and shrewd sense. She will be greatly missed, as quiet people often are.

CLARA MILDRED SMALL

Σ Φ K

Lumberton, North Carolina

Basketball ('31, '32); Baseball ('31); Hockey Team ('31); Monogram Club ('31, '32)

Clara is all that her name implies: small, mischievous, vivacious, and very likeable. She will never be lost in a crowd, for wherever she is, she makes herself known. Both old and young like her.

MARGARET ELIZABETH SYMONS

Π Θ Μ

Elizabeth City, North Carolina

Phi Chi Psi ('31); Representative Student Body ('31); Student Council ('31); Y. W. C. A. Cabinet ('32); Student Council ('32); President Pi Theta Mu ('32); Treasurer of Student Body ('32); Statistics ('32).

Here's to our friendliest and best-loved girl! Her cheerful smile brings gladness wherever she goes. Margaret is not all smiles; she possesses too a sturdy sense of responsibility and fills her place on both Cabinet and Council well and faithfully.

WINNIE NICHOLSON TAYLOR

Σ Φ K

Washington, North Carolina

Vice President of Junior Commercial Class ('30, '31); Secretary-Treasurer Senior Class ('32); Nominating Committee ('31, '32); LOTUS Staff ('31, '32); Privileged Honor Roll ('31, '32); Tennis ('32); Hockey ('32); Granddaughters Club ('31); Cabinet ('31, '32); Zeta Tau Zeta Winnie is a mixture of prettiness, quaintness, and capability. Wait until you know her, and you will understand that you can't find a sweeter, truer, or more lovable friend in school than "Blossom" Taylor.

MARGARET ELIZABETH WADE

Π Θ Μ

Raleigh, North Carolina

Granddaughters Club ('31).

More than mere words are requiring to describe her accurately. Perhaps her most outstanding traits of character are shown in her "everyday" cheerfulness and her willingness to be of service. Her personality, while not elusive, is difficult to set down in just so many words. Above all, Margaret is understanding.

NANCY WEBB WEST

Π Θ Μ

Marietta, Georgia

Here comes Nancy—in school, up street, on the athletic field, always smiling, always ready with something full of wit Peace was indeed fortunate when Nancy decided to leave Georgia and come to us. She is sure to make a success wherever she goes.

Class History

"MARCH onward, march"—the tune kept ringing in the ears of seventy-five Juniors, fifty-seven of whom were destined to graduate in the class of '32, as they paraded happily through two years at Peace. Truly it was an onward march which bravely tackled obstacles and with Miss Daisy Frances Smith as an untiring Major Domo, fought straight on to the end and victory. Now the triumph! Tonight standing on the brilliantly lighted platform—heads high, eyes shining with something more than joy, the soft clinging folds of white evening dresses cut in sharp relief by armfuls of flowers, we receive our diplomas and pausing for a moment before closing the doors on our life here at Peace, we look back and laugh and live over again the days that are past. Some call it our history, but to us it is a vivid memory.

First there was the newness of it all—the homesickness, the making of new friends, the thankfulness for a big sister. Then with the beginning of real work and organization came the realization that we had the best class of all. With Louise Newland as president and Peg LeGrand as cheer leader, we lost no time in defeating all the rest of the school in basketball and hockey. Then the initiations and Sig and Pi banquets were over, and what delightful times those were! We decorated the chapel for the Christmas carol service, impressive with a sublime hush that filled the room, elegantly simple with lighted candles and a lone tree with a blazing star at the top. Home and all the holiday fun were swiftly followed by exams, always wished to be forgotten and always to be remembered. Then came the intensive work on our part of stunt night. Our musical comedy, For the Love of a Lollipop, starring Suzanne, Peg, Dot McGee, Susie Thomas, and Mildred Womble along with a troupe of dancers, snappy dialogue, and gay songs, was easily the hit of the evening. Proudly we bore away the big silver loving cup with our name engraved upon it, while snatches of the grand finale, "Happy days are here again," kept ringing in our ears. Spring holidays came and went, and preparations were on for the Junior-Senior affair. We broke the tradition and had a glorious hayride winding up with a big picnic at Camp Craggy—games (Dr. Pressly was a hare that defied the fleetest hounds), food, and song, and then the happy ride home in the moonlight. May Day and the usual precommencement whirl ended in Class Day and our proud promotion to the senior class.

Our senior year began with a new seriousness. Louise Newland became president of the student body, while Caroline Ward became class president. The events of this last year, strangely like those of the preceding in the success of the class, passed like a dream. All is dimmed by the vividness of commencement week—the bacealaureate sermon on Sunday morning and the impressive vesper service that evening, Class Day, concerts, teas and parties, the Alumnae Luncheon, and as a climax—graduation. And so the history ends, our memories cease, shut out by throbbing demands of life, our joy in the living present, and our great expectations for the future.

NANCY ALICE LINK, Historian.

Prophecy

PEG LE GRAND—member of Congress, will explain things to the League of Nations by means of diagrams. Mary Borden Wallace—after leading the vigorous life of a chorine, will become the supervisor of the "Carolina Castle for Castaway Cats." Kate Webb—the chemist, her only drawback being her near-sightedness. Caroline Ward—mathematical ability will gain for her the position of "Official Counter of Calories" for Gandhi—with her help he will be able to keep the future shadow at bay.

Kay Giles—will suffer from a chronic case of being "sick in bed with—er—a code." Jean Cromartie has worked out a complicated system whereby every Peace girl is out every week-end, each week-end lasting from Thursday till Tuesday. Louise Newland will be a night club hostess—Texas Guinan's only rival. Mary Harvey Love—the literary type. Perhaps her work will lie with animals.

Margaret Palmer and Lucille Mallard will make the first non-stop flight around the world. Martha Adams will laugh her way into matrimony. Lib Butler and Cornelia Love will become famous by successfully disentangling the Fairie Queene. Mildred Womble will teach school at Apex. Lib Hood will probably marry her boss. Mildred Pittman will rise to movie fame, frequently co-starring with Rin-Tin-Tin.

Lib Singletary will work for Santa Claus—as nurse-maid for the dolls. Virginia Scarborough will live abroad. Margaret Symons and Willie Love Morgan will become blackfaced comedians. Virginia Earle will win the International Yo-Yo Contest. Rennie Williams will have her name in lights on Broadway. Libbet Boyd will be the editor of Ballyhoo and Ruth and Beulah Turner will be the assistant editors.

Alice Searight will be the champion flagpole sitter of the original Washington. Pat Dorsey and Clara Small will be prominent workers of the Salvation Army. Edith Patrick and Margaret McQuiston will together win the international gum-chewing contest. Irm Bonander will forget to take her trousseau. Nancy West will undoubtedly live in Atlanta.

Zellah Washburn's address will be State Prison—she stole Primrose's pictures of Clark Gable. Winnie Taylor will take up deep sea diving. Ada Morrow and Hilda Clontz will be the proprietresses of "Ye Sandwiche Shoppe," where the reducing Peace girls can indulge without having their weakness of will over hunger known to their co-starvers. Henrietta Powell, Annette Goodbred, Margaret Wade and Rosalind Crist will do great things in the literary world, writing for College Humor. Catherine Harrington, Mary Leigh Pittman and Clara Fosene will conduct important excavations in Egypt.

Julia Smith, Eliza Stephenson and Virginia Mann will fly to the moon with Lindbergh in 1941. Lib Gerow and Macy Harris will rise to fame in Hollywood. Gertrude Mann, Gladys Campbell and Majorie Blankenship will be efficiency experts in Battle Creek, Michigan. Janie Jolly, Irene Little and Elise Partin will soon become the bosses of their own households. Virgina Cox will do wonders with her violin. Harriet Link will be a second Paderewski and sister Nancy will be her publicity agent.

ZELLAH WASHBURN,
Class Prophet.

Last Will and Testament

WE, the Class of 1932, being of sound body and mind even after the near-disastrous effect of exams and open week-ends, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

To Dr. Pressly, to Miss McLelland, and to our faculty we leave our sincere appreciation of their tireless efforts for our mental and moral development.

ARTICLE II

To the incoming Seniors, we bequeath our privilege (singular number) of going to the little drug store.

ARTICLE III

To the student body we bequeath a new opportunity to get up a petition for an extended week-end at Thanksgiving, with the suggestion that they learn how to get up a proper one.

ARTICLE IV

The following members of the Senior Class bequeath their special treasures:

Section 1. Louise Newland leaves her frivolous disposition to Margaret McKinnon (we hope it doesn't get her into trouble).

Section 2. Zellah Washburn leaves her teddy bears to ornament the girls' living room mantel.

Section 3. Mildred Pittman leaves her small stature to Margaret Edmundson.

Section 4. To Shaw Hines, Willie Love Morgan leaves her soft voice and gentle ways.

Section 5. Jean Cromartie's calm disposition she leaves to Mary Virginia Lefler.

Section 6. Martha Adams leaves her chuckle to Betsey Howard, with instructions as to use.

Section 7. Irma Bonander leaves her ability to "solo" in the carol service to Mary Eugenia Wyatt.

Section 8. Cornelia Love leaves her Madonna-like appearance to Mary McElwee.

Section 9. Peg LeGrand leaves her vim and vigor to anyone who wants it; she needs a rest.

Section 10. Pat Dorsey leaves her option on the softest parlor sofa on calling nights to Louise Highsmith.

Section 11. Mary Borden Wallace leaves her gravity of demeanor to Ellen Biggs.

Section 12. To Primrose McPherson, Harriet Link leaves her serious, sedate manner.

Section 13. Caroline Ward and Mary Harvey Love take great pleasure in bequeathing their reputation for brains to anyone who will take it, with the solemn warning that the recipient will sorely regret possessing it.

Section 14. Hilda Clontz, with a sigh of relief, leaves her air of dependability to Mabel Sargeant.

Section 15. Edith Patrick and Margaret McQuiston bequeath to Lillian Crane and Isabel Nelson their acquired ability to get to breakfast on time and a double-barreled Big Ben repeater.

Section 16. Clara Small leaves her quiet, retiring demeanor to Lois Bivins.

Section 17. Virginia Cox leaves her inexhaustible supply of wit to Margaret Price.

Section 18. Alice Searight leaves her responsibilities as Miss Peace to Sara Dellinger.

Section 19. To Maxine Dowdy, Mildred Womble bequeaths two inches of her height.

ARTICLE V

Section 1. We do hereby appoint Rebecca Williams as sole executor of this will.
Section 2. Signed and sealed in witness thereof by the Class of 1932.

(Signed) THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1932.

Junior Poem

From the cool, clear night life calls to us,
Calls us to a busy world.
And looking up we see a star
Shrouded in mist filmy and soft.
Eternal light, shine from afar;
Help us, like you, to raise aloft
Our ambitions, our love, our ideal of honor,
So that, through the misty future,
We of '33 may reflect your light.

Alma Mater

In the heart of Carolina,
'Neath its skies of blue,
Stands our noble Alma Mater,
Glorious to view.
Classic in her broad proportions,
Looks she proudly down—
Reared against the arch of heaven,
With the stars for crown.

Chorus

Lift the chorus, speed it onward;
Let it never cease;
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater;
Hail, all hail, to Peace!

Clambering o'er the walls and columns
Historic ivies twine,
As pure love and tenderest memory
In our hearts enshrine
Days of toil and days of pleasure,
Happiness and joy,
Hardships, struggles without measure,
Days without alloy.

Honored to be our Alma Mater,
Honored for her past;
Honored in the living present,
Let her honors last!
Long as time shall tell the story,
Long as hearts are true,
May her name be crowned with glory
And honors ever new!

Miss Nannie Dinwiddie.

A CAREER AND YOUR HOME

A promising future is often-times sacrificed on the altar of household drudgery. You have planned a career—yet you, like all other women, will some day want the pleasures and comforts of a home of your own. Must you abandon the work for which you are prepared in favor of the home? Not in this age of electrical conveniences! You can manage a home successfully and at the same time carry on with your vocation or profession. Electrical appliances will provide you with the necessary time and perform your household tasks efficiently and economically.
